Too much insanity, not enough rising.. I want a sequel! :D. 10V10, would play victim of changes by judas priest again.... What if Dali and Enya got together to make a video game?. I cant really say this game is good due to the very bad server problems that some people are having and the balance issues like the spider mech and rocket car which btw do way to much damage to the point of being OP just in its current state can suggest anyone to buy this game i would give it a few months to see what happens and what changes are made and what is added.. I have waited for this for a year and a half, and now my patience has finally paid off. I'm extremely glad to say that my expectations have been completely blown away. Not even 5 hours into the main route, and I am absolutely captivated by the story. I actually ended up loving this series more than I originally expected. I have absolutely no complaints about this visual novel in the slightest, and I am truly, genuinely happy right now.

A really cute story and a personal fantasy in one. :3 Could do with a bit more content instead of skipping scenarios though.. I was very much into it until I encountered a game-breaking bug. If you play this, make sure to save the game before each puzzle in case they break on you. As far as I know there's no skip option on the puzzles, so if they break, you get stuck.. I was expecting something more like Katamari. I finished the game in roughly 2 hours, and an hour of that was dialogue. Another wasted premise.. Early access on this game is going to be a gamble for anyone. There doesn't appear that there is much going on with communication here from the dev to the forums. I'm speculating that this isn't going anywhere further at this point. I could be wrong. It's been a while since the company has posted in the forums and has pushed new content. If you don't want to potentially lose your money, walk away. As is, it is buggy and AI is either too good or in a down right vegetative state. Levels don't have any gritty realism and look too much like a game show set (shiny and bright EVERYTHING) than an actual building.. I was ok i guess... The camera is a little difficult to control in some tapes (I'm using M+KB), needs more levels, the story is We Happy Few but with less gameplay.

6/10. Buy it while in promotion.. A fun rumble in the jungle :P
